DOH Providing New Weekly Data on COVID-19 Clusters Under Investigation

The Hawai'i Department of Health (DOH) is releasing weekly COVID-19 cluster reports to illustrate COVID-19 trends across the state.

The Weekly COVID-19 Cluster Report highlights recent incidents in which the virus occurred at one time, in the same geographic location, or among people with the same or similar shared exposures. For example, this week's report includes information on clusters related to college students attending parties, a cluster connected to a group of co-workers who ate lunch together, and a cluster at an O'ahu school.

Public health officials study disease clusters to identify risk factors, design intervention strategies, and prevent further infection.

A new Cluster Report will be posted every Thursday on the DOH web site at <https://health.hawaii.gov/coronavirusdisease2019/>. The report documents COVID-19 cluster investigations during the past 14 days. A comprehensive cluster report will be published after the end of the calendar year once all 2020 cluster investigations have concluded.

“Data Window Shift” Coming on Sunday Adjusts Daily Reporting Time

DOH will shift its data window this weekend. This adjustment changes the time regular updates are available on the COVID-19 dashboard at HawaiiCOVID19.com. Daily updates on the dashboard will appear at 12 p.m. rather than the current 3 p.m. time.

This change will also mean no new data, including the number of new COVID-19 cases, will be available on Sunday, Nov. 15, 2020. This Sunday’s data will now be reported next Monday at 12 p.m.

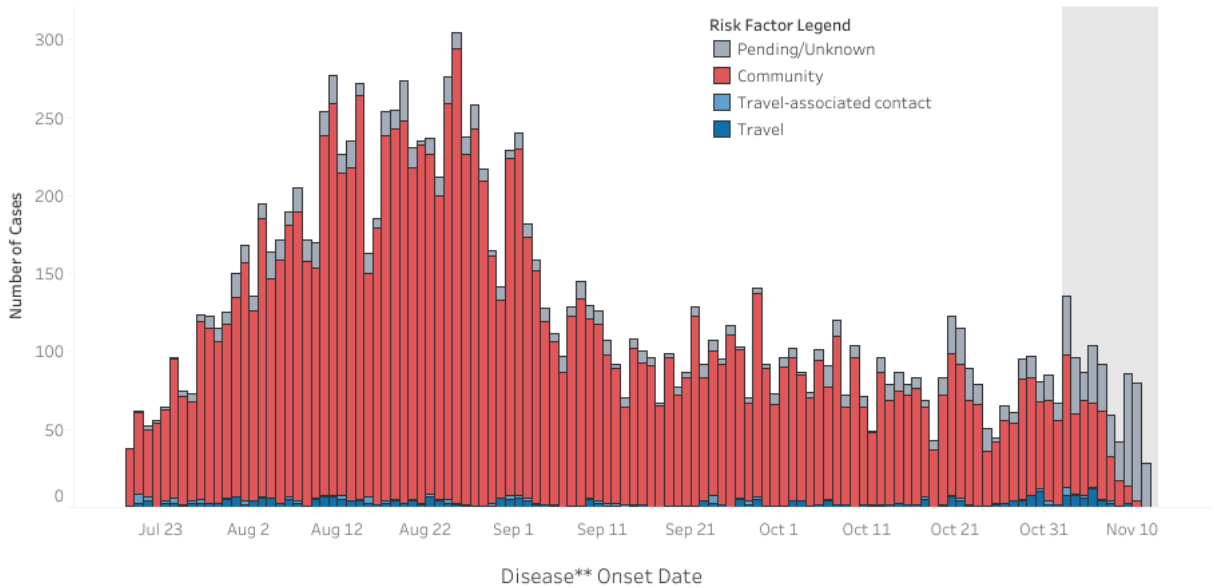

This additional time provides DOH and its partners a more sustainable data timeline and allows for greater accuracy in reporting COVID-19 statistics. It also makes Hawai‘i’s data timeline more consistent with the timeline of other states, counties, and municipalities across the country.

Complimentary E-Commerce and Digital Marketing Support for Hawai'i Businesses

Businesses are invited to apply for e-commerce and digital marketing support offered under technical assistance for businesses funded by the Hawai'i Business Pivot Grant program. The program matches companies with specialized consultants who help improve the company's digital presence and expand their market during the COVID-19 pandemic.

At the time of application, companies applying for assistance must be registered with the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (DCCA). If successful, the company will be matched with a partner vendor who will provide 3 hours of complimentary consulting to answer questions or assist with e-commerce and digital marketing. This application process is separate from the application for the Pivot Grant.

The Hawai'i Technology Development Corporation (HTDC) will be accepting applications on a first-come-first-serve basis and opportunities are limited so businesses are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

This program is administered by HTDC in partnership with the Chamber of Commerce Hawai'i and the Department of Business, Economic Development & Tourism (DBEDT).
